

international trade

international trade

international trade

the exchange of goods and services
between countries

cultural exchange

cultural exchange

cultural
exchange

sharing of cultural
information between two countries to promote mutual understanding

Renaissance

Renaissance

Renaissance

the revival of art and learning in Europe between the 14th and 16th centuries inspired by an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans

middle ages

middle ages

middle ages

the period of European history between ancient and modern times; began with the Fall of Rome and ended with the Renaissance

merchant

merchant

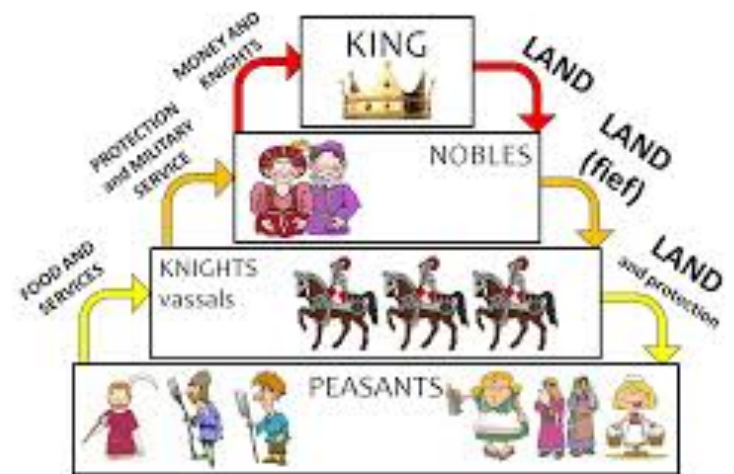

merchant

someone who sells goods for profit

feudalism

feudalism

feudalism

a social system in Europe during the Middle Ages in which people worked and fought for nobles who gave them protection and the use of land in return

manor

manor

manor

a lord's estate in the Middle Ages

city-state

city-state

city-state

a state that has its own government and consists of a city and the area around it

Magna Carta

Magna Carta

Magna Carta

a list of political rights given to rebellious English barons by King John of England in 1215

movable type

movable type

movable type

the system of printing that uses moveable pieces (letters, words, etc.) that are positioned on a rack to compose the lines on a document

literacy

literacy

literacy

the ability to read and write

